FLIGHT THE ONLY REMEDY.

YELLOW JACK WILL STOP WHEN HE FINDS NO NEW VICTIMS.

Otherwise He Will Run His Course Until the Frost Comes-Many New Cases of Fever Reported in Jacksonville and Grenter Martality Expected-Distress and Deprivation at Camp Perry.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 5. - With such rapidity does the fever scourge's list of new victime increase that the city's corps of physiclans is greatly overworked. An accurate list of the new cases cannot be given, for the spread of the disease has called Dr. Mitchell from his duties in the Health Board to the bedsides of the sick, and many physicians have been unable to report their cases.

Other doctors, like Dr. Bettes, who at tended the man Tyler who died Monday. make no report at all. Physicians who, like Dr. Bettes, transgress the health laws by failure to report fever cases will be vigor-ously prosecuted by the Board of Health.

Since my report of yesterday there have been forty-one new cases. The death rate, however, is very low, indicating the mild type of the disease, which is undoubtedly running its course until frost comes to nip the microbes' toes.

The large crop of new cases which has been harvesting for the past two days is due to the horrible weather which the city has experienced during the past week.

New victims of the plague and men who cannot be spared by us are the faithful physicians who have so long and heroically ought the dread monster. Dr. W. L. Baldwin died Monday. Dr. J. D. Fernandez. of St. Luke's Hospital, is stricken, as is also Dr. Stollenwerck, his assistant, and the in-stitution is now without a medical attendant. The Auxiliary Committee yesterday recog-nized the necessity for additional profes-sional aid, and passed a resolution accepting the proferred aid of physicians, druggists the proffered aid of physicians, druggists and nurses.

The patriotic American citizen's mind cannot be turned from politics, even were he to die the next moment a victim to the fever scourge. Primaries were held by the Republicans Monday night, and to day the Republicans County Convention is in session. Such large gatherings of people are a fruitful field for microbe missionary work and have been prevented as much as possible. Only delegates and newspaper men were allowed to attend the convention.

An addition of a new ward to the Sand Hills Hospital has been made necessary by the large increase in the number of new cases, that institution being greatly overcrowded.

The Florida Rallway and Navigation Company have offered to transport passengers in closed coaches from this city to points beyond Nashville, and Acting Mayor Gerow and Dr. Mitchell are in consultation with Surgeon-General Hamilton at Camp Perry, trying to arrange for the transportation of those who desire to remove from the city.

This hegirs of healthy Jacksonvillians seems to be the only remedy for the fever. All that can be done to prevent its ravages is to deprive it of material to work upon.

Telegrams to Gov. Scales and the State Board of Health of North Carolina asking for refuge among the pines of that State remain unanswered. If any of the North Carolina towns will find safety there.

There is little doubt but the mortality for the next day or two will be materially in-creased because of the alarming increase in the number of people attacked.

city was to be depopulated, by force if necessary.

At a meeting of the City Council this afternoon outside aid will probably be called for.

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 5.—Ten new cases and three deaths this morning. On account of Hamilton's refusal yesterday to do anything for our people, much feeling exists and the people are discouraged and almost disheartened. The big jump of yesterday's cases had its full effect and the situation is worse than ever before. Doctors are worked to death Good, experienced nurses are scarce and money is needed.

Chinamen Are Good and Handy Patrons of Bowery Shooting Galleries. "Chinese are our best customers," said the proprietor of a shooting gallery on the lower Bowery to an Evenino World reporter recently.

They come in here and spend their money freely when they once get started, but they never shoot against each other. They always pay for their shots themselves. They are very good marksmen, too, and very quick. They grab a rifle, take a quick sight and shoot. They don't hold the 'gun' the way we do, but grasp it away down near the end. "They always want to load the rifle them-"They always want to load the rifle them-selves, and we let them do it, for if we don't they will go somewhere else. They never come singly, but always in parties of two, three or four.

"In their own country they shoot with a sort of 'blunderbuss,' but when they come here it is not long before they learn how to use a rifle.

here it is not long before they learn now to use a rifle.

"Tom Lee is about the best shot among them, and he comes in here twice a week. He possesses 'sporting blood' and shows it, for he spends his money freely. He likes the swinging target and can hit the bull's-eye three times out of five."

FOR, VI., Sept. 5.—Returns from the te election are coming in slowly. The Republicans claim from 26,000 to 25,000 majority for Dillagham for Governor, over Saurtleff, Democrat, and Sector, Prohibition. The Republican majority and ceetey, Prohibition. The Republican majority is 1834 for Governor was 21, 800, and in 1883, 19, 200. Congressmen Stewart and Grout are re-ciected by increased majorities. The Republicans gain a State Senator in Frankin County, makinz the State Senator in Frankin County, makinz the State Senate solidly Republican. There are also Republican gains in the House of Representatives. The vote is probably the largest ever cast in the state, except that cast in 1836 for Gov. J. B. ## A BASEBALL COMEDY.

If there is any one in this big city who doesn't want to enjoy a big laugh, let that person stay away from the actor-journalist baseball game to be played on Friday afternoon at the Polo Grounds.

As a ball game it probably won't have much merit. As a farce it will be unequalled.

The proceeds are for the benefit of Carl Rankin, the minstrel, now lying ill with consumotion, at his home in Philadelphia.

Ten men are to play on each side in order that Digby Bell may show his prowess as right short stop.

The other actors who will figure in the cast are Lew Dockstader and Charlie Reed, managers; Harry Clarke, De Wolf Hopper, Harry Dixey, Charlie Evans, William Hoey, Francis Wilson, Jimmy Powers, Louis Harrison, and Richard Golden. The team opposed to these is made up of the base ball reporters, who have adopted pseudonyms, ieeling sure that their best friends won't recognize them in the uniforms in which they are to appear. Nothing is known concerning these uniforms except that it is probable that the centre-fielder will wear long trousers and his own name.

The actors, however, are not so closemouthed. De Wolf Hopper is to wear a full suit of Roman armor and Harry Dixey will appear in ballet costume. Jimmy Powers says he hasn't fully decided between a pair of pajamas and a nightcap, but that his suit won't amount to much, anyway. The umpires are P. Doley and Thos. Ward, and their/decisions will be backed and themselves guarded by Henry Dixey's giant, who, encased in steel armor and armed with a battleaxe, will stand near third base.

The pitcher's box is to be of pasteboard and four feet in depth. It will be placed five feet further back than the rules allow. This is to prevent twenty-seven strike, outs on a side. Nick Engel, who is in a large measure responsible for the game, will guard first base with a keg of beer and to each player who makes a hit a glass of the fluid will be given. Other things somewhat foreign to the game will be enacted, but the intense rivalry felt by the opposing nines gives promise of e

MR. BECKER DID NOT SAIL.

HIS ANXIOUS PRIENDS WOULD LIKE TO KNOW HIS WHEREABOUTS.

The Strange Disappearance of an Industrious German Who Had Bought a Passage on the Elbe-He Was Last Seen as He Left a Car at Desbrosses Street, Going to the Steamer's Dock.

Where Robert Becker is at present, whether he is dead or alive, in this city or on his way to Germany, are the perplexing questions by which his relatives in this city are just now worried. Becker is a marble polisher by trade and came to this city from Germany some twentysix years ago. He was a temperate man and worked steadily at his trade. By taking care of his earnings he accumulated about $600, which has disappeared with him.

The circumstances surrounding his disappearance are of the most peculiar character. Becker, who is but forty four years of age and for the past five years has worked for Thies in East Twenty-eighth street, at his trade, returned to the home of his sister, Mrs. Vitting, at 113 Columbia street, on Wednesday night, saying that he intended starting for the Fatherland, Saturday. Becker's sudenly declared determination did not surprise his sister and arrangements for his departure were at once begun. On Friday, he visited Townsend's ticket office at Avenue he visited Townsend's ticket office at Avenue A and Third street and secured a first cabin passage on the steamer Elbe, which sailed Saturday.

Early on Saturday morning he, with Mrs. Vitting's two sons, repaired to the house of another sister, Mrs. Zimmerman, who lives at 72 Clinton place, taking with him a small-sized trunk. It was 10 o'clock when the party left there and went to the corner of Avenue C and Third street, where they intended to board a car for Desbrosses street ferry. A squabble arose between the driver of the car, one Konnedy, nedy and Becker regarding the trunk which the driver refused to permit Becker to take on the car. In the excitement, the car started off with Becker inside, leaving the trunk behind. One of the party brought the trunk back to Mrs. Vitting's, where it now is, and the others boarded the next car. boarded the next car. Since then, nothing has been seen or heard of Becker.

Mrs. Zimmerman and her friends went to Desbrosses street ferry and searched high and low for the missing man, but without avail. They next crossed the ferry and went to the Elbe's dock, where they instituted a search of the steamer, also without finding the man. They waited until the steamer sailed, but still no trace of the wanderer.

without finding the man. They waited until the steamer sailed, but still no trace of the wanderer.

Finally, the party returned to Mrs. Vitting's, expecting to find Becker, but there again they were doemed to disappointment.

Driver Kennedy was next found, but he knew nothing other than that Becker left his car at Desbrosses street.

Finally the police were notified and a general alarm was sent out from Police Headquarters last night.

Becker knew the city well. He was 5 feet 7 inches tall, stout, broad-shouldered, had dark brown hair, closely cropped, and a mustache of the same color. He is slightly lame in his left leg. When he was last seen he wore a white derby and a light colored suit of clothing.

While Becker was a man of a retiring disposition, there is just a possibility that he has made the acquaintance of some of the bunco men who infest the neighborhood of the ferry-house, and his friends fear he has been foully dealt with.

The President, Chester B. Bradley, disappeared some months ago in bad odor, and Vice-President H. H. Mitchell has resigned.

The methods of Secretary Thomas A. Raymond have been called in question by prominent fremen, and by Historian Weeks, of the order. Lawyer W. A. Cotton, of New Jersey; T. C. Vermilyes, of Staten Island, and Jesse Browne, fr., of Jamsica. committee to Investigate, reported today, exonerating Haymond.

The order is $367.11 in debt, Mr. Raymond being paid in the past year $700 clerk hire and the rest of the $3, 200 in his hands for printing over eighteen thousand circulars which he has mailed. He certainly has the vouchers for these sums.

The committee censured the system by which the Secretary spent the money without the intervention of the Treasurer, C. G. Braxmar, the badge man.

THE GIANT'S BATS.

Let the Number of Contributors be Made Round Thousand.

There are already about five hundred subscribers to the Giants' testimonial bats. The total amount received thus far is $56.43, thus making an average subscription of a little over a dime. It is purposed to call time when the number of subscribers has reached one thousand. This is done in order that the bats may be ready for the boys when they return to complete the champion-ship schedule of games upon the Polo Grounds.

Now, then, is the time for the lovers of the Aow, then, is the time for the lovers of the national game, the admirers of the local team and all cranks and croakers to step from behind and come to the front with the shekels necessary to buy bats, which the Giants can hang on the walls, as well as use in the field.

The following subscriptions came in this morning's mail:

The report of the year was received with much enthusiasm and the allusion to Governor Hill my vetoing the High License bill was warmly received, but with no outward demonstration.

To-day the delegates are out sight-seeing. This morning they started out in fifty carriages to take in the town. They lunched at the Parade. At 2.30 they boarded a steamboat three hundred and fifty strong to go to Grand Island, where they were invited to a beautiful spread at the hands of their Buffalo entertainers. The delegates are all pretty tired, but express themselves as delighted with the hospitality that has been showered upon them since they have been here.

The re-election of President Keans meets with undisguised approval. As a presiding officer he went the hearts of the convention by his knowledge of parliamentary rules, his impartiality and force.

Buffalo is filled with strangers and politicians. Cliuton B. Fisk, the Prohibition candidate for President, is to speak here on Friday and Saturday to counteract the influence of the Liquor Dealers' Convention, and the Prohibitions are in high fettle over it.

The hotels are are preparing for the Democratic convention of next week, and the hotels are already packed with cots and mattresses to accommodate the Democratic hosts.

Buffalo is determined that no complaint shall be made this time that she cannot take care of a convention.

Gleason, who is a cousin to her father, and last night she slept with her little cousins in Thirty-third street.

This afternoon Miss Lizzie Gamble called for her and took her to Far Rockaway.

An EVENING WORLD reporter called on the baby tourist this morning and by dint of much questioning got a most interesting story of the child.

She said. "Papa and mamma are dead. Mams was going across the track where we lived and two trains came. She couldn't get away and was run over. Then my pacame home and when he saw mamma he got crazy and he died.

Big-hearted Mrs. Gleason listened and nodded her assent solemnly as the little, lisping, speckled-nosed orphan told her story.

"Then they took us to the Sisters and we lived there. There was Anna, who was older than me; and Maggie and Johnny and the baby. Folks came and got them, and then the Sisters sent them to New York."

"Tell me about your ride on the cars. What did you see? How did you sleep?

This last question seemed to strike a funny vein in Miss Mamie's mind, for she broke into a pretty smile as size replied: "I just curled up on the seat and went to sleep."

Her descriptive powers were not great, and she only assented when asked if she had had fun, if people were good to her, if she had all she wanted to eat, &c. And she said no vebemently when asked if she were not afraid to be all alone. Conductors and passengers had vied with each other in their interest in the Colorado waif.

Miss Lizzie Gamble, of Far Rockaway, is death as in life. Crowds thronged to see her in her coffin until the hour of the funeral, passing in one continuous line at all hours of the day.
